

Final Rites Today for Mrs. Hopkins

Funeral services for Mrs. Nettie H. Hopkins, 85, wife of a retired Assistant Secretary of Interior, will be held today at 2 p. m. in the Ives funeral home, 2847 Wilson blvd., Arlington, Va.

Mrs. Hopkins died of a cerebral hemorrhage on Monday at her home, 1519 Utah st. N., Arlington.

A native of Marion, Iowa, she moved to Plainville, Kans., with her parents in 1885. There she met and married Selden G. Hopkins. They celebrated their sixty-fifth anniversary last November.

After living in Kansas and Wyoming, they came to Washington in 1917, when her husband was appointed to the Interior Department office. He later served as a member of the board of appeals of the Civil Service Commission and retired in 1945.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Hopkins is survived by three sons, Grant G. Hopkins of Richmond, Va., Philip S. Hopkins of Binghamton, N. Y., and Ralph W. Hopkins of 1900 F st. nw. Six grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren also survive.
